

Sir Robert Borden States He Has Pledged Men at Front they Shall Receive Reinforcements

posed To Raise Additional Force of From At Least 50,000 To 100,000 Men To Maintain Dominion's Fighting Forces Up To Present Strength—Voluntary Enlistment Has Failed, Says Premier—Does Not Tell What Method Will Be Used To Enroll Men Or What Basis of Enlistment Will Be Taken—Canada Determined To Do Her Part Vigorously Until Victory Is Achieved, Says Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

What Borden Says of Conscription

"If the cause for which we fight is what we believe it to be; if the issues involved are those which have been repeatedly declared by all our public men and in all the press of Canada, I believe the time has come when the authority of the state should be invoked to provide reinforcements necessary to sustain the gallant men at the front who have held the lines for months and who have proved themselves more than a match for the best troops that the enemy could send against them, and who are fighting in France and Belgium that Canada may live in the future.

"I bring back to the people of Canada from these men a message that they need help, that they need to be supported that reinforcements must be sent them. I have promised, insofar as I am concerned, that this help will be given, I should feel myself unworthy of the responsibility devolving upon me if I did not fulfil that pledge.

"Therefore it is my duty to announce to the house that early proposals will be made on the part of the government to provide, by compulsory military enlistment, on a selective basis, such reinforcements as may be necessary to maintain the Canadian army today in the field as one of the finest fighting units of the empire.

"The number of men required will not be less than 50,000 and will probably be 100,000. These proposals have been formulated in part and will be presented to the house with the greatest expedition that circumstances will permit.

"I have no confidence that the war will end this year."

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, May 18.—Canada is to have compulsory military service on a selective basis. Sir Robert Borden made the announcement in the house this afternoon. The premier said that he had given his word to the men at the front that they should be adequately reinforced and supported and that the government would carry out this promise.

By this method, it is proposed by the government to raise an additional force of from at least 50,000 to 100,000 men to maintain Dominion's fighting force up to its present strength and state efficiency.

The premier returned to Canada from a visit to England, during which the Imperial authorities impressed upon him the absolute necessity of Canada's contributing every ounce of her power in support of the empire and their allies in the great war. He had been in the trenches and had seen for himself the almost superhuman efforts which the Canadian soldiers were making in the practically unbroken battle on the western front. He saw with his own eyes the urgent necessity for reinforcements.

Voluntary Enlistment Ceased.

He came back to find voluntary enlistments practically at an end. The training camps deserted and the military effort of the country paralyzed. He realized that nothing short of compulsory service would avail to restore those energies and re-establish the stream of reinforcements demanded by the forces on the western line. The proposed legislation is the result.

Mr. Wilfrid Laurier Non-Committal

Sir Wilfrid Laurier did not commit himself to the government's proposal with regard to the conscription bill. The same consideration he gave to the measure, he said, had been given to the legislation already passed by parliament. He said that the government would involve grave considerations in the conscription bill, and that he would not be able to give a definite answer until the bill had been passed by parliament.

Coming to the question of naval defense he said it would be desirable to have a navy, but he said that the government would not be able to do so until the conscription bill had been passed by parliament.

Sir Robert was applauded when he stated that he had taken the conscription bill to the Imperial authorities about the Canadian cattle embargo. He told them frankly that if they wanted to keep out Canadian cattle they should do it by direct and not by indirect means.

The Visit to France

Sir Robert Borden then referred to his visit to France. He paid a tribute to the courage and fortitude of the French people. When he was in France, in July, 1916, there was but one Canadian division at the front, which he reviewed at Ploegsteert. On this occasion there were four divisions at the front constituting a full army corps. With line of communication, railway construction corps and forestry corps, there was a force of 100,000 men. It was a compliment to the Canadians that they were selected to make the attack at Vimy Ridge, where many assaults in the past had failed.

A Great Struggle Ahead

Coming to the war itself Sir Robert said that at the time he arrived in England there had been a great victory in Mesopotamia and there had been victories in France. "A great struggle," said Sir Robert, "still lies before us in this war. This is the message I bring back from the front."

Sir Robert said that Germany had put a million more men into the war this spring than last. The mobilization of man power by Germany had been wonderful. They had been able to throw their full man power into the campaign. He wished to speak with discretion and moderation but he could not too strongly emphasize the fact that a great effort still lay ahead of the United States.

On the other hand the United States had entered the war. This was bound to have a great influence on the future of the war.

COMFORTS TAG DAY

Don't forget to put an extra quarter in your pocket this morning for the Red Cross Tag Day for comforts for the men in Stratheona Military hospital. These men who have "done their bit" for the empire and who have suffered injuries which in many cases will incapacitate them for life are deserving the best the country can give them. There are many things they need and it is the purpose of the good ladies behind this Tag Day movement to provide a fund for giving them some of the comforts to which they are entitled. United Effort will put it over and every man and woman in Edmonton should be glad to have a share in it.

GREAT BRITAIN DEPENDS UPON U. S. FOR FOOD

"America Is Our Sheet Anchor," Says Baron Devonport.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, May 18.—Great Britain is depending on the United States for food supplies, at least for the next two months, until the harvest, said Baron Devonport, in a statement today.

The food controller emphasized that Great Britain's reliance was in her cousins across the sea, and he pinned the statement down with the remark that "America is our sheet anchor." Great Britain is looking to America, said Baron Devonport, for guidance in the solution of the allied food problem, and would be ready to be guided by suggestions from Washington.

Baron Devonport expressed hearty concurrence with the plan of Herbert Hoover for establishing control of supplies in the United States and furnishing foodstuffs to the allies through controlling bodies in the respective countries. Great Britain was only awaiting to hear what action had been taken in the United States before it was ready to take the same action.

The belief was expressed by Baron Devonport that this was the only way to make sure of supplies and to control prices.

PERSHING WILL LEAD FIRST OF U. S. A. TROOPS

Pres. Wilson Signs Army Bill Which Provides For Conscription.

REGULARS TO GO TO FRANCE VERY SOON

All Americans Between Ages Of 21 and 30 Must Register.

GEN. PERSHING

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, May 18.—President Wilson tonight directed that an expeditionary force of approximately a division of regular troops, under command of Major General John J. Pershing, proceed to France at as early a date as practicable. General Pershing and staff will precede the troops.

The army law provided for an ultimate force of approximately two million men to back up the first troops to go to the front. When the bill had been signed the president affixed his name to a proclamation calling all men in the country, between the ages of 21 and 30 inclusive, to register themselves for military service on June 5th next. The proclamation sets in motion immediately machinery that will enroll and sift 10,000,000 men, and pave the way for selection of the first 500,000 young, efficient soldiers without crippling the industries or commerce of the nation, or bringing hardship on those at home.

Even before the bill was signed the war department announced the full strength of the National Guard would be drafted into the United States army, beginning July 15 and concluding August 5. Orders to bring the regulars to full strength immediately accompanied the notification sent to all governors. A minimum of 325,000 fighting men will be brought to the front under these orders, supplementing the 333,000 regulars who will be under arms by June 15.

It is from these forces that the first armies to join General Pershing at the front will be drawn. To be followed within a few months by recruiting waves from the selective draft armies, the first 500,000 of whom will be mobilized September 1.

Liberal Candidate In East Edmonton

Fred Duncan, Liberal candidate in East Edmonton, is an eleven-year resident of the city, growing up with the eastern end and watching with pride its development. His interests have been largely in the Norwood district, where he and his brother have conducted the North End Store under the firm name of Duncan Bros.

Mr. Duncan is a native of Huron county, Ontario. His early life was spent in Wellington county, where he was engaged in farming, and later in the mercantile business. In 1906 he came to Edmonton, starting a general store on Norwood Boulevard, where he has since been in business.

Mr. Duncan is a Presbyterian, member of Erskine church, and a strong temperance man. He has always been in sympathy with organized labor and many of his best friends are prominent members of the local labor organizations.

British Artillery Cooperates With Italians in Offensive Against Austrians in Isonzo

Austrian Efforts To Recapture Lost Ground Between Gorizia and Tolmino Fail—Italians Have Captured 6,500 Prisoners—Germans Have Apparently Given Up Hope of Recapturing Lost Positions on Hindenburg Line—Russian Repulse Teuton Attacks in Volhynia.

LONDON, May 18.—British heavy artillery, whose destructive effectiveness made possible the successful Somme and Arras offensives, is co-operating with the Italians in their latest attempt to drive the Austrians from the line of the Isonzo. Against the combined British and Italian artillery fire, the Austrians have failed in attempts to recapture lost ground between Gorizia and Tolmino. At four points along the line the Austrians have made repeated attacks, but all efforts were checked by artillery fire and infantry counter attacks. Meanwhile, under the cover of the artillery, the Italians were busily fortifying captured positions and preparing for any forward movement. In addition to the taking of much war material, Rome reports the capture of nearly 6,500 prisoners.

Artillery Action In West.

Artillery actions only are reported from the British front around Arras. The Germans apparently have given up hope of retaking Bullecourt and other strategic positions now in British hands, and admit the evacuation of Bullecourt. Crown Prince Rupprecht has made no new counter attack.

Along the Aisne and in Champagne the German Crown Prince also has given up his fruitless counter attacks, but continues to exchange violent artillery firing with the French heavy guns.

Russians Repulse Poo.

Dense German formations, Petrograd says, have attempted an attack against Russian positions near Ishelev, in the region of Vladimir-Volynski, Volhynia. The Russian soldiers met the attempt with artillery, rifle and machine gun fire. They drove the Germans back. There had been no reports of strong German attacks along the line from Riga to the Roumanian-Bukovina border since a few days after the fall of the Romanoff dynasty.

Transport Cameronia is Sunk And 140 Soldiers Lose Live

Big Steamer Torpedoed In the Mediterranean—Explosion Kills Many—Survivors Rescued By Boats and By Destroyers—Discipline Was Splendid.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, May 17. (Delayed).—The British admiralty issues the following statement for newspapers of Saturday: "The British transport Cameronia, with troops, was torpedoed by an enemy submarine in the eastern Mediterranean on April 13. One hundred and forty men are missing, and are presumed to have been drowned."

Gross tonnage of 10,963 tons, was one of the largest ships belonging to the Anchor Line of Glasgow. She was 515 feet long, 62 feet beam and 33.7 depth. The Cameronia was launched at Glasgow on May 27, 1911. She was requisitioned by the British government on May 1, 1915, and for the two intervening years has been in transport service by the British admiralty.

The survivors of the Cameronia say the vessel was torpedoed in fine, calm weather in the afternoon. The submarine was not seen. A large number of the casualties were due to the explosion of the torpedo, which struck where there happened to be many soldiers. There was some excitement and confusion at the outset after the torpedo had struck, but discipline soon prevailed. The boats were smartly launched, but one of them was smashed and many lives were lost.

The Cameronia was at anchor for 40 minutes after she was torpedoed which enabled destroyers to run alongside the wounded vessel. Soldiers from the Cameronia jumped on these boats in disciplined succession. The destroyers picked up the boats. Several tales are told of the gallant rescues. Chief Officer McBurnie sank while trying to save a drowning soldier. Mr. McBurnie was a survivor of the Anchor line when construction was when she was sunk off the Irish coast by a submarine in February of this year. Capt. David Bone, commanding the Cameronia, was the last to leave the steamer, jumping from the bridge into the wireless apparatus of a destroyer.

Hon. Chas. Stewart Chosen by Sedgewick Liberals as Candidate

Big Enthusiastic Convention Selects Minister of Public Works As Standard Bearer in Forthcoming Election—Is Nominated By Mrs. Gibb of Killam—Is Unanimous Choice of Liberals of Sedgewick Constituency.

Sedgewick Liberals nominated the Hon. Charles Stewart as their candidate for the provincial legislature at one of the best convention—ever held in the constituency. Every part was represented, and although the farmers are busy completing seeding operations, they were out in large numbers to nominate their popular member.

The convention was called to order by J. R. Pointer of Strathmore, who made a few appropriate remarks, introduced the business of the gathering.

He then called for nominations, and Mrs. Gibb, of Killam, nominated Hon. Chas. Stewart in a graceful, pleasing and able speech. Mrs. Gibb gave an interesting review covering the public life of Mr. Stewart and showed in a very convincing manner that he was the unanimous choice of Sedgewick Liberals of both sexes. His was clean and upright in politics, great ability and possessed of thrift, integrity, honesty and energy, and a farmer was the man to represent a farming constituency.

Mrs. Gibb then dealt with the splendid legislation passed during the life of the last parliament and amid great applause urged the people of Sedgewick to again elect Mr. Stewart.

W. C. Banks of Forestburg, an old-timer of that district, seconded the nomination, first paying a high tribute to the women of Sedgewick and complimenting Mrs. Gibb on her splendid effort. He considered Mr. Stewart the logical candidate, who had accomplished great things for Alberta. It was wonderful that in such a short time so much legislation of a high order had been placed on the statute books of the province. He then discussed the railways, roads, farm loan act, free hospitals and cow bill, women's suffrage and the dower act, showing how these measures greatly benefited the country.

No other nominations being received the chairman declared Mr. Stewart the Liberal candidate, and that gentleman being sent for, accepted in a forceful and telling speech. He first showed why the government was asking for a renewal of the people's confidence at this time of a great world crisis and then reviewed the Liberal legislation. It was for the masses instead of the classes, and Alberta enjoyed more democratic laws than any other country in the world. It was a cheap country to live in, as owing to law administration, the taxes were very low, as legislation was kept very close to the people. The Sifton government was careful of the people's money.

No big program was to be carried out now, when construction was high, but the government planned to conserve the resources until after the war, when it would be of great help in the adjusting of labor and other problems. The government's policy was to keep settlers in the province. The present development warrants a population of 5,000,000 people, and the eyes of Europe were now turned on Alberta. They had built for the future. The department of education was doing a grand work. It was their duty to provide school education. 750,000 was spent last year on schools. Alberta should have her natural resources developed. The coal alone would provide a handsome revenue. The future of our province was safe, and with careful administration there would be found in Alberta a happy, well-educated, contented and prosperous people.

Organization work was then taken up and the following officers chosen for the Sedgewick Liberal Association: Honorary president, Hon. Chas. Stewart; president, J. R. Pointer; Strathmore, vice-president, Mrs. William Gibb; Killam; secretary-treasurer, J. W. Ratnay, Killam.

The resolution committee brought in strong and effective resolutions covering Canada's participation in the war, confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier as maximum that "when Britain was at war Canada was at war" being expressed, and "during the policy of the Dominion and provincial leaders. With ringing cheers for the King and the Liberal candidate the convention was concluded by the singing of the National anthem.

BIG GUNS OF CONSERVATIVES TURNED LOOSE

Open Fire Upon Liberal Trenches Preparatory To Battle of Ballots.

SIFTON AND CROSS PRINCIPAL TARGETS

Michener, Ewing and Ramsey Operate Heavy Artillery.

The battle is on. The bombardment of the government, launched by the opposition, preliminary to the grand assault scheduled for the seventh of June, was opened with great vigor at the Conservative meeting held at the Borden club last night. Hon. C. W. Cross, M.P.P., was the big gun of the occasion, but the fire was maintained with equal intensity by A. F. Ewing, K.C., M.P.P., and James Ramsey, the Conservative candidates for the constituencies of West and East Edmonton, respectively. As was to be expected Premier Sifton was the principal target but Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney general, was favored with a number of shots, particularly from the emplacement where Mr. Ramsey's howitzer was located.

It was announced that the meeting was to be "a conference of workers" but a fair sized crowd turned out and the remarks of the speakers were loudly applauded at the houses which were judiciously allowed for that purpose.

Mr. Michener displayed his usual pre-election optimism respecting the probable result. This time he rather figured enough seats north of Red Deer will be changed to defeat the government and that enough—more south of that latitude will defect to give the Conservative five of a majority to come and go on in the next house. This prediction was received with manifestations of great joy.

Mr. Michener in his address, reiterated his previous claims that some of the most progressive measures in the legislation just enacted were due to the constructive criticism of the opposition and had been endorsed by them. He asserted that the government had been claiming credit for the liquor act, whereas the direct legislation law, which alone had made it possible, was a Conservative policy and the legislature had merely recorded the will of the people in passing the act.

"In view of the charges which have been against the Hon. C. W. Cross in connection with the administration of the license department, (always allied with the liquor traffic), it seems strange that the Sifton-Cross government could claim credit for the liquor act," said Mr. Michener.

Speaking of the franchise act he declared that the opposition was entitled to equal credit with the government for its passage. Some years before, before public sentiment had advanced, the government had listened to the appeals of the women. "I was the first member to take the floor of the house and advocate an equal franchise for men and women," he asserted.

Had Faith Charged

The leader of the opposition accused the government of bad faith in bringing on an election at this time. "We had every assurance," he said, "that they would not go to the country before seeding. We had strength enough in the house to hold up an early adjournment and we did not do so. We were on the floor of the house but by number of members of the government. On the strength of that statement we did not oppose adjournment and now they announce an election. I do not know just what the seeding season is, but I do know that in some parts of my constituency, owing to the late spring, seeding had not even begun."

So they are springing an election at this inopportune time when the farmers are too busy to give their time and attention to the proper study of the issues."

Railway Construction

Replying to the Premier's statements regarding the railway expansion under his policy, the speaker declared that only 150 miles of the 1,400 miles guaranteed before the last election had been built. Settlers were suffering but the premier was unable to build the railway line up to their agreements. In saying that 4343 miles of railway had been built during the past seven years, the premier had omitted to mention that only 1,790 miles of this had been constructed under provincial guarantee.

Mr. Michener reiterated former statements that promoters had been unduly favored in the construction of railways and predicted disaster to the province in consequence. "Without doubt," said he, "many of these lines will come back on the public. We will have to pay the interest on the bonds and make good the operating costs for many years to come."

The speaker denounced the McArthur contracts as being "fraudulent in their very essence, and described the transaction as a 'pilfering manipulating of public credit to the advantage of a few individuals' which, when the day of reckoning came, we would realize. The railway contractors were stealing millions of dollars and the premier of Alberta was encouraging and condoning this enormous expenditure, he declared.

James Ramsey

James Ramsey, in his remarks, accused Hon. A. G. MacKay of misrepresenting him, in a speech made at the nomination meeting in East Edmonton. Mr. MacKay had quoted him as saying to the Credit Men's convention in Calgary that he was opposed to giving the retail merchants any more credit. What he had said, (and he proposed to produce the verbatim report of his address to prove the misstatement) was that it would be well for the retail merchants to exercise care.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

Uncle Wiggily the Cook

Copyright, 1917, by McClure News paper Syndicate.

Nurse Jane Fussy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper for Uncle Wiggily, Longears, the rabbit gentleman, awakened in the hollow stump bungalow one night as she heard some one cry:

"Oh, Nurse Jane! Save me! Save me! Save me from the mosquitoes!"

Up jumped Nurse Jane and with her right arm on her head, so she wouldn't take cold, she looked out of her window. There she saw a dreadful sight. Uncle Wiggily Longears, who was practising at being a soldier, and who had been keeping guard in a little tent in front of his bungalow, was being carried off by the enemy mosquitoes with his toy circus balloons around his neck.

"Oh, my goodness me, the mosquitoes! I must save Uncle Wiggily. But how can I do it? He is being carried off through the air, and I must follow him the same way. But how?"

"Hal! I have it! His airship! If I can go only make it go!"

Quickly Nurse Jane, the brave muskrat lady that she was, dressed herself and went out in the old chicken coop where Uncle Wiggily kept his airship, made of a Japanese umbrella as with toy circus balloons around the edges, an electric fan in back and a clothes basket filled with soft cushions to sit on when the airship was sailing.

"Oh, if I can only make it go, so I can fly through the air and get Uncle Wiggily away from the mosquitoes!" cried Nurse Jane. But she did not know much about airships, and morning came before she had even got the electric fan started. Then along came Johnnie Bushytail, the boy squirrel, who was working for a milkman, leaving bottles of cream at the homes of the animal folk of Woodland.

"What's the matter, Nurse Jane?" asked Johnnie on his early morning trip. "Are you going away in Uncle Wiggily's airship?"

"Only wish I were!" cried the muskrat lady. "Oh, a dreadful thing has happened, Johnnie. Uncle Wiggily has been taken away by the mosquito enemy, and I want to go to save him. He called to me to do it, but I can't run the airship."

"But I can!" cried the squirrel boy. "I've often ridden with him in it and in the automobile, too. I'll run it for you!"

"But what about the milk and cream you have to deliver?"

"Oh, I'll fly over my nest-house and get my brother Billie to do it," said the squirrel boy.

So Nurse Jane, putting in the airship a few things to eat from the kitchen, in case she and Johnnie had to go without breakfast, got in the airship, Johnnie started the electric fan and then up toward the clouds he steered the airship by the baby carriage wheel which was in the front part of the clothes basket.

On and on and on flew the squirrel boy and the muskrat lady. But, though they kept their eyes wide open they saw no sign of Uncle Wiggily whom the mosquitoes had carried away.

At last, however, the airship flew over a big swamp. Johnnie Bushytail looked down and cried:

"Here, if anywhere, the mosquitoes will be. This is where they come out to bite. Maybe they have Uncle Wiggily a prisoner here."

"Let's go down and see," said Nurse Jane.

"But we must be careful about it," whispered Johnnie. "If the mosquitoes see us they'll bite holes in the circus balloons of our airship, and we'll fall down."

"That would be dreadful!" cried Nurse Jane. "Let's hide."

So Johnnie steered the airship down behind some trees on the far edge of the swamp, and then hiding the circus balloons and so on back of some bushes, the squirrel boy and the muskrat lady crept softly on. Soon they saw the mosquito camp, and there in it, surely enough, was poor Uncle Wiggily a prisoner.

"Oh, they've made a cook of him," said Nurse Jane, and so the mosquitoes had. They had taken away Uncle Wiggily's red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, and his tall silk hat, and given him a white apron and a white cap. And there he had to stay, cooking the meals for the mosquito army.

He was a prisoner, and if he had tried to get away about seven hundred millions of the bad biting bugs would have bitten him at once, so he didn't dare run.

"Oh, dear!" whispered Uncle Wiggily and Johnnie and the muskrat lady, hidden behind the bushes, heard him. "Oh, dear! If only Nurse Jane would come and rescue me now."

"I'm here, but how can I save him?" asked Nurse Jane.

"If you only had something to give Uncle Wiggily he could slip it into the soup he is cooking for the mosquitoes. They would all fall asleep, we could slip him into the airship and take him away with us," said Johnnie.

"Something to make the mosquitoes sleep?" whispered Nurse Jane. "I have a bottle of paregoric!"

"I picked it up, as I ran out of the kitchen, in mistake for a bottle of vanilla," she said, as she took the paregoric from her pocket.

"The very thing!" chattered Johnnie. "Creep up and give it to Uncle Wiggily. He'll know what to do with it."

So, while none of the mosquitoes were watching, Johnnie crept up to Uncle Wiggily, who was standing near the camp fire soup kettle, and gave the bunny rabbit the bottle of sleepy paregoric.

"And as soon as the mosquitoes fall asleep," Nurse Jane and I will save you in the airship," whispered the squirrel boy.

"Oh, joy!" said Uncle Wiggily. Then he put the paregoric in the soup which the mosquitoes had made him cook for them, and when the bad bugs had it for dinner a little later soon they all fell fast, fast asleep, not even buzzing. Then Uncle Wiggily, still wearing the white cap and apron, hopped off softly through the bushes. He joined Nurse Jane and Johnnie and soon was safe in the airship, in which he flew back to his hollow stump bungalow.

So he was saved after all, you see, and if the soda water bottle doesn't pop over the fence and scare the pantries so they make faces at the string beans I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and his sword.

Famous Women

Anne Boleyn.
Anne Boleyn, Queen of England, was executed on May 19, 1536. Her unhappy fate is celebrated in history as that of an innocent woman, sacrificed by her husband for the sake of a new affection. During seven years, while Henry VIII was endeavoring to rid himself of his first queen, Catherine of Aragon, Anne Boleyn allowed herself to be entertained as a guest in the royal household. Henry married her very quietly after his divorce and soon afterward she was crowned at Westminster with unparalleled splendor. In due time Anne gave birth to a daughter, the famous Queen Elizabeth of later years. For two and a half years after this event the royal couple lived in apparent harmony. Then Henry professed to be troubled by rumors which reached him accusing the queen of bestowing her affections upon others. Later on charges were made and Anne, with her brother, were tried by the House of Peers who found them both guilty and condemned to death.

Red Deer Ladies College Closing Exercises Held

Two Excellent Programs Are Rendered and Prizes Are Awarded.

With two excellent programs, one in the afternoon and one in the evening of Friday, together with the giving out of prizes and medals, the Red Deer Ladies College had its formal closing.

There was a good crowd at four o'clock in the dining room of the college when the first program was presented. The junior pupils of Miss Bowker, teacher of piano and Mme. Afternoon tea was served to guests and scholars at the close. Some of the clergy, including Rev. Mr. Simmons, Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Rev. Principal McCall, were present.

COOKING LAKE

The tropical heat of last week, aided by the strong breeze that sprang up on Saturday night last, succeeded in giving its tongue to the ice, which made such an unusually stubborn fight this year for a prolonged "lead" of excitement, and on Sunday morning the last "berg" had disappeared and the immediate waters of the lake were once more flashing and rippling in the brilliant sunshine, liberated from the icy trammels that had bound them so long. The ice was a week later than last year in taking its departure and four weeks later than the previous year, the dates on these occasions being May 6 and April 18 respectively.

Now that the ice is gone all is haste and activity in preparation for the reception of visitors, who will soon be crowding in. Cottages are being done up, pleasure boats are being overhauled, motor launches renovated, engines refitted and everything being got in readiness for the "lake season."

The local stores have "got in a large stock of goods of every description in anticipation of the influx of visitors expected."

Mrs. McMenomy's establishment, just below the G. T. P. railway station, is a large and commodious structure containing store, postoffice, restaurant and a large number of comfortable airy bedrooms. Pleasure boats and canoes may be had on hire and large parties are cared for. The store is replete with every requisite of the table and a full stock of groceries of every kind. The postoffice had its scope of utility extended recently by the addition of a money order branch, which is a great convenience to the district and will prove a great advantage to summer visitors.

Further down on the lakeside is the big business hotel occupied by Chris Saks. This building was enlarged and extended last year and now includes store, restaurant, ice cream parlor, pool room, and rooming accommodation. Chris carries a full line of groceries, candies, ice cream, soft drinks, etc.

Next Tuesday—Empire Day—will mark the real opening of the season proper—and on this day there is always a big crowd of visitors. This year it will be celebrated under particularly auspicious circumstances, as the government telephone employees have selected Cooking Lake as the venue for their second annual excursion and it is expected that from two to three hundred of the "phone" staff and their friends will visit the lake on that occasion. The telephone people know a good thing when they see it and having held their outing here last year and seen for themselves the advantages possessed by Cooking Lake for such purposes, they very wisely decided to "come again."

A capable committee has been appointed to make all the necessary arrangements for the event. An attractive program of sports has been drawn up and valuable prizes provided. In addition to the ordinary trains, Winnipeg and Calgary at 8:30 a. m. and 8:55 a. m., a special has been arranged to leave First street at 9:30 a. m., arriving at the lake at 10:30, so that, given favorable weather, a delightful day's outing is assured.

For the information of the uninitiated, a brief description of Cooking Lake and vicinity may not be out of place here.

Cooking Lake is a large and picturesque expanse of water some nine miles long by three to four broad. It contains several fertile and beautiful wooded islands, the most important being Waverly, Crescent, Brown's Island and Coney Island. The northern extremity of the lake is about five miles east of Edmonton, and is skirted by the Grand Trunk railway, which has its station at this point. This may be described as the base of the lake district.

Here a picturesque little town has sprung up, with up-to-date stores, restaurants, ice cream parlors, rooming accommodations, postoffice, etc.

There is an excellent daily train service from Edmonton, leaving First street at 8:50 a. m. on week days and 8:30 a. m. on Sundays, and returning to the lake in an hour. Passengers can return to town at 8:25 p. m., except on Sundays, when the hour of departure is 9 p. m., enabling visitors to spend the entire day amid the charming surroundings of this delightful retreat. The lake can also be reached by auto inside the hour, as the best roads in the province. This splendid road now practically encircles the lake, and the recent opening of the links on the north side enables motorists to do the round trip under the most favorable circumstances.

From the foregoing it will be seen that every facility is provided to enable visitors to patronize this favorite resort expeditiously and comfortably, and once arrived, nothing is left undone to cater for their wants and tastes. Motor launches will be in readiness to enable them to make the tour of the lake, while a fleet of smaller craft, such as rowboats, etc., are always available for those who prefer a quieter and more leisurely mode of navigation.

Nor are the requirements of the inland man neglected. They are adequately catered for by the several stores, refreshment rooms and restaurants that ply a busy trade during the summer months.

In addition to Cooking Lake there are several smaller lakes equally attractive. Chief among these is Mistik Lake, about two miles farther south, and said to be one of the most picturesque lakes in the province. It contains nearly half a hundred islands of surpassing beauty. Harting Lake is another sheet of water beautifully situated, while Wandum Lake, Louis Lake and several smaller ones constitute a regular network of lakes, all combining to justify the appellation of the "Lake District" of Alberta.

Considering the advantages and attractions enjoyed by this beautiful district, it would seem almost superfluous to impress on holiday makers the desirability of patronizing a beauty spot situated at their very doors, rather than seeking farther afield for charms and attractions in no way superior to the home provided article, one predominating advantage of which is the ease and facility by which it may be reached by either road or rail.

The heavy rains of the past few days have done a world of good, not only to the newly sown grain, but also to the grass, which was in a very backward condition and which was so much needed for the dairy cattle and other stock. The wheat in this district is all seeded and in most cases is well above ground. Mr. W. F. Mitchell, who has leased Mr. Charles Holmquist's farm, reports his wheat three or four inches high. Oats, too, in the raising of which this locality is most successful, is nearly all in while potato planting is well forward in many instances.

Much interest is displayed in the forthcoming provincial elections and press announcements indicate that the electioneering campaign will be vigorously prosecuted throughout the district. The first gun was fired Friday night, when Mr. H. M. Crawford addressed a meeting of his supporters in the school here. His opponent Mr. B. B. Douglas has not yet announced when he is to appear in the arena.

Drinking Tea Upset Nerves
Mr. Burroughs Compares Canadian Customs With Those in Old Land, and Tells How Nerves Were Set Right.
Orillia, Ont., May 18.—"How to be well and strong" is the question many are asking at this time of year, and in this letter you will find the answer. It tells something of the blood-forming, nerve-invigorating influence of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great restorative which is causing so much talk here just now.
Nature's way of curing disease is by building up the vitality of the body, and this is exactly what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does. The blood is made rich and red, and it nourishes the exhausted nerves back to health and vigor.
The experience of Mr. Burroughs as described in this letter is similar to that of hundreds of others in this community who have recently put this well-known food cure to the test.
Mr. George Burroughs, 23 Peter street, Orillia, Ont., writes: "A few years ago, after coming out to this country from England, the change of customs seemed to have some effect on me. In the old country the habit of drinking strong tea was prevalent, and after arriving here I suffered very much from nervousness. If I put my arm down on the table it would shake very noticeably, and while performing my work I would easily tire, and want to sit down and rest. A friend recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so I secured some and took a treatment. It built me up and made me strong and healthy. I have not had a trace of the nervousness since. I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and find that it heals the skin very quickly. I feel I am all of Dr. Chase's medicines good."
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Lift Corns Off With Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Corns and calluses loosen and fall off! Magic!

Few drops of Freezone take all pain and soreness from corns instantly

No hump! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift off, without a particle of pain or soreness.

Wonderful discovery by Cincinnati man

This remarkable drug is called Freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of Freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted right off with the fingers.

Freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels or rather loosens them without even irritating the surrounding skin.

Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. Try a little and see for yourself. It is surprising.

Few drops stop corn-pain

Take soreness from any corn or callus instantly

Women should keep Freezone on their dressers and never let a corn ache twice. If a corn starts hurting just apply a drop. The pain stops instantly, corn goes!

Many bottles of Freezone cost but a few cents at any drug store.

The Municipal Hospitals Act

How to Incorporate a Hospital District and Provide for Operation of a Hospital.

Under the Municipal Hospitals Act passed at the recent Session of the Legislature, the Minister of Municipal Affairs is authorized to divide the Province into Hospital Districts. He is also charged with the responsibility of supplying plans, specifications, estimates, advice on sites and management and such other assistance as he may be able to give. The bringing into existence of a hospital depends on the initiative of the people. When more than one council is concerned, the consent of the other council or councils is necessary, as well as the petition from the electors within the municipality. The preliminary work being done, the council shall appoint a hospital board. In the case of one municipality, the board shall consist of the council, the board shall consist of three members of the council and three electors outside the council. When there are two municipalities in the proposed district each council shall appoint three representatives, one being a member of the council, and two electors not councillors. When the appointments are made the names are sent to the Minister, who names a convenor and the place and date of meeting for organization. The board has power:

To appoint such officials as may be necessary and to fix the amount of remuneration;

To determine the site and arrange for purchase of same;

To arrange for the acquiring or erection of a suitable building;

To make arrangements with any existing hospital, if preferred to undertake the establishment and maintenance of a separate institution;

To engage medical practitioners and nurses;

To arrange for financing the hospital, the preparation of estimates, etc., the municipality providing the money as for other municipal enterprises.

The levy for capital expenditure shall not be higher than two mills on the dollar.

As soon as the plans are approved by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, the council shall prepare a bylaw for submission to the electors, which must be voted on within three months. For full information as to how to arrange for and conduct a Municipal Hospital under this Act, apply to

JOHN PERRIE,
Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs,
Edmonton.

themselves in giving credit to their customers.

"The people of this city know that I am not small enough to want to put the retailers out of business," said Mr. Ramsey, warmly.

Mr. Ramsey also declared that he was not opposed to the Factory act and had at the board of trade meeting, only proposed that the government should hear all parties interested before passing the act. He said that he had told the representatives of organized labor that he had always been in favor of the minimum wage.

Charges Against Cross

He brought up the Stanley charges against Cross. Mr. Cross, who is either Dr. Stanley or Mr. Cross, had no right to remain in public life. He asserted that a minister of the gospel had told him a week ago Saturday, at a meeting at Mountain Park, near Edmonton, held in the interest of Mr. Cross' candidature, half the men present were drunk. "But I haven't heard," said Mr. Ramsey, "that although the attorney general, who is responsible for enforcement of the liquor act, was there, that anybody got into trouble for selling or buying liquor."

A. F. Ewing

A. F. Ewing, the concluding speaker, said that he had been told that in Calgary that the premier had said that he was the one member of the opposition who would have to be got rid of. "No matter how willing I might be to retire to private life," said Mr. Ewing, "I am not going to lie down because some scheming politician who is handling the province in his own interest wants to manipulate me out of office!" Mr. Ewing criticized the premier for the expense which he had incurred and declared that the Liberal party had always been affiliated with the liquor interests. Respecting railways, he said that because of the roundabout route of the E. D. & B. C. to Grande Prairie the people of that region were unable to do business with Edmonton on account of prohibitive freight rates. Yet the government, instead of compelling the C. N. R. to complete the direct line from Bangud, which had been authorized, was actually arranging to extend the present line from the B. C. railway system. The result would be that the business of the north country, instead of coming to Edmonton, as had been promised, would go to the building up of the coast cities.

SIR ROBT. BORDEN STATES HE PLEDGED

ture of Canada and the United States.

Turning to the submarine menace Sir Robert said that perhaps its seriousness might not be realized. He believed it would be met. There was no determination, resourcefulness and courage to meet it, but he would not be doing his duty at the present time if he did not emphasize its seriousness. "I have no confidence that the war will be finished this year," added Sir Robert. "I think that no true Canadian, realizing all that is at stake in this war, can bring himself to consider with toleration or seriousness any suggestion for the relaxation of our efforts. The months immediately before may be the most critical, even if the war should not end this year. Germany is bringing into play during the present season the last ounce of her manhood. What have we done in this way? We have sent 124,000 men overseas in the Canadian expeditionary force. Including reservists in British and allied armies the men enlisted for naval defense, 260,000 men at least have left the shores of Canada. It is a great effort, but greater still is needed."

Voluntary System Falls

"Hitherto we have depended upon voluntary enlistment. I myself stood to parliament that nothing more than voluntary enlistment was proposed by the government, but I returned to Canada impressed at once with the extreme gravity of the situation, and with a sense of responsibility for our further efforts at the most critical period of the war. It is apparent to me that the voluntary system will not yield further substantial results. I hoped that it would."

"Now the question arises as to what is our duty. If the cause for which we fight is what we believe it to be, if the issues involved are those which have been repeatedly declared by all our public men and in all the press of Canada, I believe the time has come when the authority of the state should be invoked to provide reinforcements necessary to sustain the gallant men at the front who have held the lines for months, and who have proved themselves more than a match for the best troops that the enemy could send against them, and who are fighting in France and Belgium that Canada may live in the future. "No one who has seen the position which our men have taken, whether at Vimy Ridge, Courcellette or elsewhere can fail to realize the magnitude of the task that is before them or the splendid resourcefulness which its accomplishment demands. Nor can anyone realize the conditions under which the war is being carried on. I have been somewhat in the midst of things at the front. Yet I know that I cannot yet realize what the life in the trenches means and I can realize it better than those who have not been as near the front."

A Call for Help

"I bring back to the people of Canada from these men a message that they need our help, that they need to be supported, that reinforcements must be sent them. Thousands of them have made the supreme sacrifice for our liberty and preservation, common gratitude apart from all other considerations should bring the whole force of this nation behind them. I have promised insofar as I am concerned that this help will be given. I should feel myself unworthy of the responsibility devolving upon me if I did not fulfill that pledge."

"I have had to take these matters

Internal Bathing's Rapid Growth

It is not natural to expect that a relief from Constipation and the many ills which it causes, which is so essential and so natural as internal bathing, would quickly make many converts.

But its general use has increased so tremendously in the past few years as to suggest other reasons, and these are found in the statement of users that they feel as if made over new. The morning after an internal bath.

The elimination of the pernicious poisons which are ever present in the Lower Intestine gives Nature a chance to work unhampered. And one arises in the morning clear-headed, able, bright, confident and eager for the day's duties.

Mr. F. E. Smith writes:

"Dear Doctor: Your 'Cascade' made a new man of me at the age of 40. I persuaded my wife to use the treatment also, and she has been a better person than ever. Since the use of the 'Cascade' she sleeps better and can walk for hours without fatigue. In fact, she has become a condition of the past; can eat anything on the bill of fare and drink all beverages. She does not feel cold when exposed; but weather does not cause oppression."

"J. B. L. 'Cascade,' the most efficient device for internal bathing, is being shown and explained in detail by Miss R. Edmonds, 1141 Central Avenue, 1008 2nd Ave., Edmonton, Alberta. (Telephone 31500). Ask for free booklet, 'Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent.' If you are a doctor, write to Dr. Chas. A. Tyrell, 1285 College street, Toronto, for same."

Into consideration and I have given them my consideration. I realize the responsibility is a serious one. I do not shrink from it. Therefore it is my duty to announce to the house that early proposals will be made on the part of the government to provide, by compulsory military enrollment, on a selective basis, such reinforcements as may be necessary to maintain the Canadian army today in the field as one of the finest fighting units of the empire. The number of men required will not be less than 50,000, and will be probably 100,000. These proposals were born of the necessity to do what was necessary to the house with the greatest expedition that circumstances will permit. I hope that when they are submitted all the members of the house will receive them with a full sense of the greatness of the issue involved in this war, a deep realization of the sacrifice we have already made of the purpose for which it has been made, and with a firm determination on our part that we will do our duty in this great struggle to the very end and whatever it may be."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Reply

Sir Wilfrid Laurier in reply said that when the imperial conference was announced in January the Liberals had decided at once to offer no objection to the absence of the minister.

Sir Wilfrid then declared that the result of the conference, in so far as any practical action had been taken, was concerned, and was very little. The concrete thing which has come out of the conference is an imperial war council.

"My right honorable friend," said Sir Wilfrid, "concluded his observations by stating that we are certainly very far from the end of the struggle. He said that his words are only an affirmation of what we already know. Events in Russia have brought into the war a new feature upon which we had not calculated. We have calculated on the offensive which was to be undertaken by our armies this year was to have brought ourselves to the Rhine, but events in Russia have enabled the German government to bring over to France nearly a million men, if not more. Under such circumstances it goes without saying that the war must last a long time."

"As to the methods which Canada must take with regard to the prosecution of the war, I have said this day. That Canada intends to remain in the war to the end until victory has been won. As to the methods which we are to adopt in order to bring our men to the front and fulfill to the end the duty we are determined to fulfill, a good deal of consideration is to be given before the fractional policy followed by this country shall be set aside. I make at present no observation. The government tells us that they have a new policy to offer us, and I have only this to say, that whenever that policy is made known to us we shall receive and consider it in the same spirit that we have determined to meet the outbreak of the war to assist government, that is to give them due and fair consideration, respecting to ourselves the liberty of free British subjects to discharge our duties in the way we consider they ought to be discharged."

"I am not to say that we should

Since Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Kidney Trouble.

Nova Scotia Lady Who Was Weak, Nervous and Irritable and Suffered From Back Pain Finds the Right Remedy for All Her ills.

Antigonish, N.S., May 18. (Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills are keeping up their good work in Nova Scotia is evidenced by Miss Mary Jane De Wolfe, an esteemed and popular young lady living here, who has suffered for seven years from an aggravated form of kidney trouble. Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

"I am feeling like a new woman," Miss De Wolfe states in an interview. "I am indeed thankful for the good Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me and I hope they will give benefit to all sufferers from kidney trouble. I believe my trouble started from a strain. I became tired and nervous and had headaches and neuralgia."

"My back pained. I did not sleep well and I was irritable. My limbs were heavy and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. I suffered from cramps in the muscles and my heart fluttered. I just took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills to take away all my troubles."

Kidney trouble is what is making back, nervous, irritable and weak. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the remedy.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain out the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

PLAYS AND PHOTOPLAYS IN EDMONTON

WHAT THE PRESS
AGENTS SAYHISTORICAL ACCURACY FEATURE
OF FARRAR'S "JOAN THE WOMAN"

Great Motion Picture With Symphony Orchestra Will Be Presented Here At The Empire Theatre Entire Week Of May 28 With A Fine Cast of Established Players.

That the motion picture has opened up an entirely new and unlimited field for the presentation of great historical events in the form of most stirring dramas is the opinion of those who were acquainted with the preparatory work on "Joan the Woman," in which Geraldine Farrar was called upon to play the part of the great heroine, which was produced by Cecil B. DeMille. It will be shown at the Empire Theatre one week, starting May 28.

There is a vast difference between motion picture productions, the stories of which have modern or fairly modern backgrounds, and a great cinema story of the early fifteenth century. Even before Miss Farrar went to California three months ago to devote her entire summer exclusively to a characterization of Joan of Arc, the most careful preparations had been made to abide by the best authorities, not only in the telling of the story, but in the costumes, manners, dress and details of the period.

According to the late Mark Twain, whose book about Joan of Arc is one of the finest things he ever wrote, the life of the Maid of Orleans is unique in history as having been recorded under sworn testimony. During the great trial when Joan of Arc was called upon to prove that she was not a heretic, every incident and detail of her life was revealed. These records are preserved to the present day.

When Miss Farrar was in France as a student of the operatic stage, she became an enthusiastic disciple of Joan of Arc. In order to grasp this enthusiasm she traveled over the entire region of France, and to the French people as being the soul on which Joan's spirit had been revived. During the taking of the picture, in which she takes the title role, Miss Farrar was invaluable in supplying details of historic accuracy. The cast which appears in support of Miss Farrar includes Wallace Reid, Theodore Roberts, Robert Bosworth, Raymond Hatton, Tully Marshall, James Neill, Marjorie Day, Lillian Leighton, Hugh Keach, Billy Blier, Charles Clary and many others.

ACTOR STARTED AS A MAGICIAN

John Charles, an important member of the cast which supports Norma Talmadge in "The Law of Compensation," her new Selznick-Pictures production, has had a varied career before the public. His experience ranges all the way from black art to shadow drama. He began diverting the public when fourteen years old, as helper to a magician. Feeling the call of dramatic art he played in stock for eight years. In his stage career he appeared with such stars as Louis Mann, Helen Ware, Tyrone Power and Otis Harland. With the rise of moving pictures he embarked in this new branch of the art, and has been seen in such important photoplays as "The Agony of Fear," "The Black Sheep," "The Vicar," and "The Servant in the House."

EMPRESS

"The House Built Upon Sand"—Triangle.
"The Weaker Sex"—Triangle.
"The Darling of Paris"—William Fox.

Careful selection brings to the Empress Theatre next week three carefully balanced programs, two from the Triangle studios, with their accompanying Keystone comedies, and one from the studio of William Fox, which is accompanied by the Fast Weekly Gazette. In addition the moving picture "None Faultless," produced in Edmonton by purely local talent and with local scenes, will be on the screen all week in addition to the regular program. "The House Built Upon Sand" is the new Triangle feature for Monday and Tuesday, and "The Road Agent" is the title of the Keystone Comedy. The feature presents Lillian Gish as the star, who is seen as the wife of a manufacturer who has ideas of his own about improving the welfare of his workmen, and proceeds to put them into effect with startling results both for the workmen and the wife. The feature of the play is the raid by the workmen's wives of a club which has been started for their husbands, and which the men have turned into a drinking and gambling resort. The raid is followed by a fire, which destroys the building and results in disclosures concerning people other than the workmen and their wives. Dorothy Dalton, Charles Ray and Louisa Glauum are all seen in "The Weaker Sex," also from the Triangle, which, with the Charlie Chaplin comedy, "His Musical Career," makes up the program for Wednesday and Thursday. "The Weaker Sex" deals with the big modern question, "Is a wife's place in the home?" Dorothy Dalton has the role of a successful woman lawyer, who marries a still more successful lawyer of the eternal sex and is forced to abandon her practice. Her husband will not even allow her to help him, until her keenness and woman's intuition accuses his own son, who is falsely accused of murder. There are some big and exciting scenes in the William Fox production, "The Darling of Paris," which is on the screen Friday and Saturday, with the immortal Theda Bara in the title role. The story was founded on Victor Hugo's romantic story, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," and gives Miss Bara a wide range for her versatility. It is a production that will go down in history as one of the most absorbing in which this stellar actress has been identified.

MADAME SARAH BERNHARDT WILL APPEAR AT EMPRESS NEXT WEEK

At this time the simple announcement that Madame Sarah Bernhardt will appear in a multiple reel photoplay at the Empress Theatre during the entire week of April 28 is sufficient to arouse unusual interest. To go further and state that the theme of this significant feature is the present great world war and that the French government was instrumental in its production, being part owner in the film, is certainly a combination of interest and entertainment that has not been equaled by any of the recent war pictures or photoplays of dramatic art.

In "Mothers of France," for such is the title of this historic masterpiece, Madame Bernhardt delivers a message to the mothers of Canada and in order to show what the women of France are doing in these times of war and hardships this gifted woman actually went into the trenches of the front line and upon the battlefields that have seen such heroism, under fire for the scenes shown upon the screen. She herself filled the character of Mme. Jean Marceau, and was surrounded by the following cast:

Martin Saxe ..... Albert Singer
Mae Geo. Markey ..... Jack Denbourn
Robert Marsay ..... Aubrey Angell
Victor Duval ..... Frank Delmar
Marie ..... Alice Lagrange
Pierre ..... Albert Singer, Jr.

Many of the scenes in "Mothers of France" are memorable ones which will go down in history as records for future generations. For example, one scene shows Mme. Bernhardt in the statue of Joan d'Arc before the great cathedral at Rheims. The havoc wrought in the cathedral by German shells is plainly evident in this scene. It is all so out of the ordinary, so wonderfully interesting, so splendidly photographed, and so superbly acted by Madame Bernhardt that the feature can be compared to no other. Such opinion was agreed to by several Edmontonians who saw the film at a private showing. "The Gift Girl," a five act Bluebird production, on Wednesday and Thursday the Majestic will show for the first time the famous Metro pictures, the first production being Madame Petrova in an elaborate five act photoplay, "Black Butterfly." Madame Petrova is one of the best known cinema stars of the present day and the Metro people have secured her services for a number of high class productions, all of which will be shown at the Majestic, the contract having been closed this last week. In addition to three big features the Majestic will continue its policy of providing a varied program of educational and comedy films. It is a very elaborate production, founded upon R. H. Durant's exciting drama, "Marcel's Birthday Present."

She was found in the denseness of a Persian forest where she had been born but a few minutes before. Her mother lay dead by her side. Somewhere in the jungles her father was being devoured by wild beasts—his reason having fled when great grief snapped the mental strands. Taken to the home of a Persian prince, she was reared innocently, until at sixteen, she was designated as one of the wives of a greedy rug merchant.

When she set eyes upon her future spouse, she rebelled and straightway decamped. Finding her way to Paris, she fell easy prey to the wiles of the boulevardiers—and then adventure multiplied, and her young life was filled with excitement.

How this harem innocent conquered in an altogether unequal battle, and won happiness, despite the snares and pitfalls that had been strewn at her feet, is told in this interesting photoplay.

Well known in Edmonton for his stellar work in "The Bugler of Algiers" and "The Right to Be Happy," who plays the leading role in the Bluebird play "The Gift Girl," which is being shown at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

MME. PETROVA IN "BLACK BUTTERFLY"—METRO.

Two big features are offered to the Majestic patrons this next week. On Monday and Tuesday Rupert Julian, who will be remembered as having played the leading role in "The Bugler of Algiers" and the part of "Scrooge," the meanest man in all literature in the Bluebird production "The Right to Be Happy," presents "The Gift Girl," a five act Bluebird production, in which Louise Lovely acts as his co-star. This is a very elaborate production and has been pronounced by the New York critics as one of the best Bluebird productions. On Wednesday and Thursday the Majestic will show for the first time the famous Metro pictures, the first production being Madame Petrova in an elaborate five act photoplay, "Black Butterfly." Madame Petrova is one of the best known cinema stars of the present day and the Metro people have secured her services for a number of high class productions, all of which will be shown at the Majestic, the contract having been closed this last week. In addition to three big features the Majestic will continue its policy of providing a varied program of educational and comedy films. On Friday and Saturday the seventh episode of "The Voice on the Wire" will be the leading attraction of the varied bill.

INTERNATIONAL TO

NEW YORK, May 18.—President E. O. Harrow of the International League has called for a special meeting of the club owners of the league to be held next Sunday at Buffalo.

McCAULEY IS WINNER FINAL
SCHOOL GAME

Defeated McKay Ave. Team By
Score of 5 to 2—Mueller
In Form.

McCauley team won the final game of the public school baseball league last night by defeating the McKay team by the score of 5 to 2. Freddie Mueller, pitching for the winning team pitched shut-out ball, but his support wobbled badly at times, and through errors the McKay avenue team was able to gather in two runs.

WORLD'S GREATEST
COMING ATHLETE

"The world's greatest competing athlete." This is the claim made for Capt. Bob Simpson of the University of Missouri track team by H. F. Schulte, his coach, says a writer in Sporting Life. The new record or seven seconds in the 60 yard low hurdles, made at Louisville recently, is Bob's eleventh world's record in the hurdles, the only line of sport he has fully developed in, and according to Schulte he shows promise of setting other world's marks in the jumps and in running events. "Bob is now in a class or rather has passed the class of J. J. Eller, New York Athletic club hurdler, having broken this former world's record hurdler's time in almost every event," said the Missouri coach. "He is breaking world's records right and left at the age of 23, while such men as Eller and Hannan Kohlenstein, both of whom were once regarded as among the world's greatest athletes, established their records after they were fully developed. This certainly gives us reason to believe that as Bob develops he will even more fully establish himself as the world's greatest athlete."

WON: Wilhite, 2nd; Sister Susie, 3rd. Time 1:13.
Third race, 6 furlongs—Paisible, won; James G., 2nd; Trist, 3rd. Time 1:14 1/2.

Sporting Facts and Fancies

If Hans Wagner thinks of coming back to the Pirates he'll have to do some pretty strenuous rolling or something to get rid of some of his superfluous fat. Hans tips the scales at 280 pounds today and that's too much to carry around on the diamond.

Now just look at Peckinpaugh. There were days, and they're not so long ago that Peck couldn't hit up for beans. Today he's actually snoring them. In fact he's way up at the top of the list of short stops who are hitting at all these days.

Southpaws or right wheelers, they're all the same to Walter Tapp. He's slugging the ball to beat the band and he can land on them from any angle they are dished up to him.

Uncle Robbie is keeping Ivan Olson to be used at first base in case Jake Daubert's feet give him trouble.

One of the game's sports in the major leagues is Roltie Zelder. He has been playing right along despite the fact that he has had enough sorrow in a short time to break down the average man. Zelder has lost his father, mother, wife and sister within the last twelve months.

Matty has decided to take special pains with Pitcher Scott Perry, who was recently sold to him by the Cubs. Matty is sure there is something in the young man and he's going to bring it out. Perry pitched several fine games for the Chicago team in September, but when he came to the coast in February, Fred Mitchell decided that he couldn't use him any longer.

Ray Caldwell has come back. All doubt about that point has been dispelled by the fine showing he has made in the box, and the Yankees are more than ever pinning their faith on the big pitcher. Unfortunately, Ray has not been able to chalk many victories against his score, but that hasn't been his fault. The fact is that on those occasions when he has been called upon to do the pitching, his team mates have failed to deliver the goods in the shape of hits. Caldwell is pitching in the same style that made him feared during his early career with the Yankees. He had the same hard luck in the matter of lack of support during the beginning of the 1916 season.

If the White Sox fail to win the American League pennant this year, Clarence Rowland will be removed from the management. Already the rumors are circulating a story that Owner Comiskey has already picked out Rowland's possible successor. Tom Needham, who is handling the Newark International League team, is said to be the man. He is highly regarded by Comiskey and Han Johnson, who recommended his engagement by the Newark club. Needham and Pat Moran once played with the Cubs under Frank Chance. In 1914, Moran was the Phillies coach and Needham served the Cubs in a similar capacity. Chance, who then was managing the Yankees, made the prediction that one day both Needham and Moran would be major league team leaders. Moran already has made good and Needham will perhaps have his opportunity next year.

An S.O.B. call has gone forth from the Giants, for they will be without the services of Charley Herzog for some time to come. The injury he sustained in a few weeks ago is more serious than at first had been supposed and his recovery is not proceeding as rapidly as was expected. It may be two weeks more before he can again take up his work on the diamond, and meanwhile his team mates are anxious to have him back. They can't do without Charley's swift pitching.

Urban Shocker, pitcher of the Yankees, is living up to his name. Every time he gets into the box he gives his opponents a jolt. George Stallings thinks very highly of the youngster and he'll very likely be put to work as often as he can stand it.

Well, Oscar Vitt is doing his bit with the Detroit Tigers and is doing it quite well. Everybody agrees, of course, that Oscar got away with it. His reinstatement by the National Commission after he had refused to sign up this spring, has been a great help to the rule. However, he and the club seem to be getting along fairly well together now and he's doing pretty good work at third base.

The baseball bee is firmly implanted in the bosom of Robert Lee Hedges, who said the St. Louis Browns and Philadelphia Phillies and who was so affected by the deal that he immediately took a trip to Hawaii. He has just returned and the rumor is gaining strength that he is anxious to get into the game again. Talk connects his name and the Cardinals. It is said he wants to get his hand in on that club and will go to great lengths to acquire it. Hedges got the tidy sum of $500,000 in cash for the Browns and he still has part of it left to make him dicker for the Cardinals.

It looks as though this is going to be a record season for no hit games. Within the first month of this year's campaign three major league pitchers had pitched no hit games, the last being Fred Toney, the big Cincinnati twirler, who in the last series with the Cubs left the Chicagoans without a run or a hit in a ten inning contest. During the same game Jim Vaughn, the Cubs' pitcher, allowed only one run and two hits. The first to break into the no hit class this year was Eddie Cicotte, the veteran mound artist of the White Sox, who shut out the Browns without a hit on April 14, three days after the season opened. The score at the end of that memorable contest was 1 to 0 in Chicago's favor. Only four St. Louis batters got on base and that was Cicotte's fault, because he walked three of them and hit the other two. Ten days later George Mogridge of the Yankees held the Red Sox hitless in a game which the Yankees won by a score of 2 to 1. Boston's run was scored on an error, a sacrifice and a fly. Mogridge walked three of the opposing batsmen, one of them intentionally.

Fast running is sadly lacking in the big leagues and the men who can be relied upon for swiftness are the exception. Young Hickman, the Robins' extra outfielder, is said to be the fastest runner in the big leagues. He is rather short and thick set, but he certainly can fly over the ground when he gets under full headway. Many times Hickman's great speed has enabled him to beat out what looked like certain put-outs. At the same time he has spoiled many a hit that looked like a sure double or three-bagger. His opponents have learned to stick pretty close to their bases when Hick is on the job.

It looks as though Jess Willard will have to retire. The champion has been looking around for possible contenders for his honors, but there isn't one in sight. Fred Fulton for a time loomed large as a rival, but the Minnesota giant made a sorry mess of his match with Carl Morris, and that eliminated him. Morris himself was put out of the running after his bout with Jim Coffey, for while Morris got the decision, he could not dispose of Coffey. Frank Moran made a pitiable effort against the heavyweights champion in Madison Square Garden, New York, last year, and stands no chance, and the same is true of such other contenders as might appear for the present. There is nothing left to Willard, therefore, but to retire. It should be noted here that the champion isn't a bit sorry either. There are many other things he prefers to boxing.

A CRIBBAGE QUESTION.

Editor Sport Dept.—Please tell me what this cribbage hand counts: Four five spots and a Jack turned up in the cut?
When the Jack is cut it counts two points to the hand it is dealt. The hand counts twenty-eight. The largest hand possible is twenty-nine. The cards in this case are the same except that the Jack is in the hand and is of the same suit as the five cut on the deck.

Was Troubled With
Shortness of Breath

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

The nerves become unstrung, you dread to be alone, have a horror of society, start at the least noise and are generally fatigued.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mrs. C. M. Cormier, Buctouche, N. B., writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors, and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B. E. Almanacs and read of a case similar to mine.

"I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are in a box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of $3.75. The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Relaxing the Tension with a good Gillette Shave

A day a-wing over enemy lines—scouting, observing, fighting, dodging shells and machine-gun bullets—is a nervous strain that has no precedent and probably no equal. When our airmen alight at last, after flights an eagle might envy, they certainly do enjoy the refreshing relaxation of a cool, smooth Gillette shave.

Nor is this appreciation of the Gillette Safety Razor limited to our airmen, or even to our own British armies. Every service has its own tense moments, hours or days, with its welcome intervals of relaxation when the Gillette is a friend indeed. Keen, compact, always ready for action, the Gillette Safety Razor is treasured in tens of thousands of kits on every fighting line on land and sea—and by no means least in the land of its birth, with the forces of our newest Ally.

Nor does its service end here, for "the man behind the man behind the gun", who in the factory, the office or on the land is bending every energy towards production—he too gets solid comfort and satisfaction out of the Gillette Safety Razor and its wonderful three minute shave.

Spend a five dollar bill to send a Gillette to one of your defenders—and get one for yourself to see how much he'll appreciate

There is No Occasion for Men and Boys to Pay Present Day Regular Retail Prices for Shoes if they Come to Johnstone-Walker

WE are still prosecuting a vigorous campaign against the high price of Footwear, concentrating on Men's Shoes in this Saturday drive. Prices are becoming exorbitant, and the retailer is not to blame. It is, however, his duty to strive to keep prices down, and his usefulness to the community may rightly be judged by his accomplishments. Week in and week out this Store continues the struggle, and those who depend upon our Footwear Dept. to supply their needs, know right well our efforts are by no means futile.

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 1917

Perhaps Marshal Joffre could spare time to tell Ottawa how France raised its army.

The profiteers are still doing business as usual. The Minister of Labor still labors under the delusion that he is a Minister.

If Mr. Michener believes the Government to be as dishonest and incapable as he claims they should be object to an opportunity to present the facts to the public and invite them to turn the scales out! Somehow is objection to an election seems to discredit his claim that the Government ought to be put out of office. A party who is sure of the validity of his claim does not try to get a stay of proceedings when it is proposed to let the case go to the jury.

Premier Borden's announcement that compulsory means will be employed to secure the additional men needed to make up the half million he promised will meet with general approval. There is a pretty wide difference of opinion as to why the voluntary system failed to produce the required number of men. But, whatever the cause, voluntary enlistment has practically ceased, and there is no evidence of any hopeful attempt to revive it. The alternative, therefore, seems to be compulsion or default, and default not to be thought of if we still love our liberty or our national respect.

And why not also a Father's day once a year? When all is said and done, Father takes his share of the hard knocks in this world, and he gets most of them in the process of trying to make life enjoyable for the rest of the family. Just now a good many Canadian fathers are in the trenches, taking the places of sky young slackers who would not go. And a good many thought more would be there if it did not involve leaving their families dependent upon a Patriotic Fund fed by voluntary subscriptions. Upon pensions insufficient to get the cost of living. And those who have not gone are fighting a battle of their lives to keep the lion in food and their wives and children from want. Without detracting in any way from Mother's day to reverence, Father is also entitled to recognition.

The Minister of Justice takes the view that the Dominion law draws lines of discrimination between sexes; that while any man allowed to vote at provincial elections is thereby qualified to vote members of Parliament, no man is entitled to vote at Dominion elections, whether holding provincial franchise or not, voters on the Opposition side. I that the women of some provinces are qualified to vote at Dominion elections because given as at provincial elections, but the women of Alberta and Saskatchewan. There is agreement that the women of Alberta and Saskatchewan will have votes in the next Dominion election unless Parliament amends the law. If the law is amended it might even come that that women in Ontario, Nova Scotia, and British Columbia be allowed to vote at the Dominion elections, but the men of Alberta and Saskatchewan be debarrd.

An exchange advises its readers to "eat plenty of vegetables." The advice is good, but the price is too good.

Sombody should remind the Russian soldiers that liberty is not fortified by fraternizing with an enemy bent on the attainment of world power.

Advice to use substitutes for potatoes and other luxuriously-priced necessities of life would be more interesting if the price boosters had not also got in their fine handiwork on the substitutes.

Petrograd reports that the Russians have withdrawn 600,000 men from the Russian front to hurl against the British and French lines. Berlin no longer considers Russia a serious factor in the situation, and the news from Petrograd gives unwelcome confirmation.

Perhaps Mr. Tweedie would contribute to the enlightenment of the election campaign in the Calgary precincts by repeating at this juncture what he once said to a delegation of women who waited upon him to ask him to help them get the right to vote?

The proposed Irish settlement consists of compromise for the present and promise for the future. An arrangement of the sort may not evoke enthusiasm in either faction, but it should be acceptable to the same elements of both in preference to anarchy, which seems to be the alternative.

By the way, would it not be well to postpone the celebration of Mother's Day to a date a month or so later, so that everyone could celebrate it in the prescribed manner? Hot-house flowers at twenty cents per are not available to everybody who would like to observe this most commendable anniversary in the conventional way.

Mr. Michener says we should devote every energy and make every necessary sacrifice to win the war. He is right. It is to be hoped he will press the fact upon the attention of his friends at Ottawa. But in what way is energy withdrawn from the prosecution of the war, or the people of the province made less ready to sustain the necessary sacrifices, by the holding of the Provincial elections?

Sir Robert Borden has been finally got to consent that Parliament shall consider the question of giving votes to women before a general election is held. That is a long way from a clear-cut declaration that the women will get the franchise, and get it in time to vote at the next election. It looks, in fact, a good deal like postponing the decision with a view to demanding an extension of the term of Parliament on the ground that the women could not be qualified to vote at an election held this summer. Still, it commits Sir Robert far enough that he can be arraigned for breach of promise if he tries any dodging. Sir Robert has evaded this issue about as long as he is to be allowed to. Wednesday's debate accomplished the end of compelling him to consent to face the question squarely some time or other and declare his intentions.

PETROL IS TO BE FURTHER REDUCED

Restrictions in Great Britain May Make It Impossible For Private Use

London, May 18.—The demands of the war office and the admiralty have made necessary a further reduction in the supply of petrol for civilian use, and forebodings the establishment of such restrictions as will make it impossible for petrol to be used for private purposes. The problem has been aggravated by the recent loss of several big ships. It is feared the restrictions will affect petrol for essential purposes, such as taxicabs.

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner. To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the questioner. This information is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

How City Got Its Name.
To the Bulletin—How did the City of Edmonton get its name?

W. M. D. Chipman.
Edmonton received its name from the old Northwest Trading Co. This company first called it Fort Edmonton and after the amalgamation of the Hudson's Bay Co. and the Northwest Trading Co., the name Fort was dropped.

An Epochal Date.
To the Bulletin—Would you please tell me what event took place on the 17th Sept., 1878, which was of interest to the Dominion of Canada.

R. F. City.
On September 17th, 1878, the result of the Dominion general elections was made public, which returned 137 Conservatives and 69 Liberals and consequently defeated the Mackenzie government. Parliament was dissolved on August 17th.

Cases Lost By City.

A correspondent writes to ask regarding legal cases won and lost by the City of Edmonton in recent years and how they compare with similar cases in other cities. It is difficult to make a comparison with other cities as there is no available record. Edmonton has lost a large number of suits, but probably not more in proportion than other Canadian cities.

Current Comment

Could Have Saved $200,000,000.

From Letbridge Herald.
If Sir George Foster had accepted the offer of the western farmers for this year's wheat crop at $1.70 he would have saved the country about $200,000,000. Instead of that he started talking a lot of highfalutin nonsense that didn't mean anything and didn't get him anywhere.

Must Redress War Pledge.

From Calgary Herald.
Hon. Robert Rogers says that Canada's war contribution pledge must be redeemed to the letter—or figure. That is right, and the people are equally waiting to see what steps the government will take to make certain the redemption before it is too late.

The Hour Has Struck.

From Regina Leader.
Summed up, there is no need to anything in Russia at the moment, with no direct threat, nothing can be expected in the way of the prosecution of the war. Russia must first save herself before she can render further assistance in the saving of the world from domination by autocratic militarism.

Miners Idle, Soldiers Dying.

From Calgary News-Telegram.
Smelters that are engaged in turning out munitions of war for Canada and the entire allies are being shut down because of a strike of coal miners, and hence it is reported from Ottawa that the government may take over the operation and the control of the coal mines. This step should not be delayed. Let the Defense of the Realm Act be invoked, and let it be clearly understood that the production of war munitions must continue. Canada has a clearly defined duty to perform in this crisis that threatens the happiness and the freedom of every citizen of this country. It is the Dominion's duty to contribute to the full extent of its powers to the cause of the entire allies in order that the enemy of the world may forever be overcome. The miners of District 18 mines are as closely interested in this war as are the soldiers in the trenches. They can fight with their picks as valiantly as the soldiers with their bayonets. Will they do their duty freely or will it be necessary that the government should make drastic means to ensure Canada's performance of her part? The idleness of the miners in District 18 may cost the lives of thousands of Canadian soldiers.

"BROTHERS IN BLOOD."

"They who this wrong began
To wreck our Commonwealth will
Rue the day
When first they challenged freedom
To the fray,
And with the Briton dared the American."

"Now are we pledged to win the rights of man;
Labor and justice now shall have their way,
And in a league of peace—God grant we may—
Transform the earth, not patch up the old plan."

"Sure is our hope, since he who led your nation
Spoke for mankind, and ye arose
Of that high call to work the world's salvation;
Clearing your minds of all estranging blindness,
In the vision of beauty and the spirit's law,
Freedom and honor and sweet loving-kindness."

This laureate poem irresistibly recalls the one written by Alfred Tennyson, probably soon after the settlement of the "Alabama" claims by the Geneva arbitration of 1871, which paved the way to a well-earned entente. It is entitled, "England and America in 1782," this being the date of the close of the Revolutionary War, which brought the United States into the status of an independent nation. The excellence of the poem was worthy of the occasion:

"O thou, that sendest out the man
To rule by land and sea,
Strong mother of a London,
Be proud of these strong sons of thine
Who wrench'd their rights from thee!"

"What wonder, if in noble heat
Those men thine arms withheld,
Retaught the lesson thou hadst taught,
And in thy spirit with thee fought,
Who sprang from English blood!"

"But thou rejoice with liberal joy,
Lift up thy rocky face to face
And smother when the storms are black,
In many a streaming torrent back,
The seas that shock thy base!"

"Whatever harmonies of law
The growing world assume,
Thy work is thine—the single note
From that deep chord which Hampden smote
Will vibrate to the doom."

Wouldn't Be Living.
"I don't have to work for a living," said the shiftless individual. "Of course you don't," replied the busy man. "If you did, it's a safe bet that you wouldn't be living."

HUDSON'S BAY TO CLOSE AT SIX P.M. ON SATURDAYS

New Arrangement is to go Into Effect on the 2nd of June

A. E. Dodman, general manager Hudson's Bay Company local store, has issued the following statement announcing that the store will close at 6 o'clock Saturday evenings from June 2nd.

"In order that there may be no misunderstanding on the part of the citizens of Edmonton in regard to the delay of this announcement having been made, it is felt only proper that a brief explanation of the circumstances be given."

"The matter of policy in regard to the closing on Saturday evenings as against a Wednesday half day, which was a decision reached at that time that for this summer no change be made from former arrangements, viz., to close on Wednesday afternoons during June, July and August and remain open on Saturday evenings."

"At a subsequent meeting held at a few minutes' notice on Monday last, this decision was rescinded and it was then decided to close all the year round on Saturday evenings at six o'clock, commencing June 2nd. Before any announcement could be made by the local branch of the Hudson's Bay Company the matter had, as is natural with all large organizations, to be laid before the head office of the company. That this has been done and a decision obtained, also announcement to that effect made in today's issue, is evidence that the local company manager has used every means of rapid communication within his power with the head office of the company, and the employees of the company's store here are to be congratulated on the matter having been so expeditiously and satisfactorily settled."

Edmonton Exhibition

The Edmonton Exhibition will this year be a six-day show, commencing on Monday, July 9th, which will be Children's Day. Tuesday will this year be Farmers' Day. Instead of Wednesday, as in former years, Wednesday will be Children's Day, and Thursday will be Stock Parade Day. Friday and Saturday will have as a special attraction, automobile races—a new feature in this section of the Dominion of Canada.

The prize list for live stock has been brought up-to-date, and new classes made for Guernsey and Brown Swiss cattle also Karakul sheep. The military have released to the Exhibition Association the horse barns, which has rapidly outgrown its former "quarters" and it is expected that the display this year of the work done by the younger citizens of the country will be a surprise to many who have no idea of the scope of the work undertaken in the schools of today.

News of the Boys' Clubs Of the City Churches

J. J. A. C. (Westminster)
Dear Editor: Realizing that we are even longer in the start, we feel that some apology should be made, but the editor does not feel. We tried to give one, so none will be made.

We ask your kind editor to grant us space to enter now, and we have our word of honor (and that means something) that we are here to stay and to do our bit as a club. In introducing ourselves to the other clubs we wish them to remember us by the three letters which we have chosen.

The first is H., which stands for honor, and that includes every one of our boys.
The second is J., which stands for justice, the kind we expect to find among our boys, and the third is K., which stands for the kind of kingdom that should be among men and the kind that we will have when we are men.

The three together, "H. J. K." in honor of our pastor, Rev. J. J. Keith, whom we all love and admire. It is not our intention to enter in details concerning what we shall do during the summer, but we are out to do things which you will hear more about later.

We wish all the C. S. E. T. boys every success during the summer months. Yours truly,
"H. J. K. CLUB"

Pilots (Eastwood)
The boys of Eastwood Church held an organization meeting at Mrs. Hamilton's. John Allen was elected president and Vernon Washburn was elected secretary and editor. The "Pilot" was chosen by William Saunders, for the reason that we need the other clubs in everything. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton served refreshments after the meeting. Mr. Turner was our mentor. Those present were as follows: John Allen, Vernon Washburn, William Saunders, Edgar Miller, David Hyde, Stanley Dumarton, Bert Dumarton, George Knapart, Lawrence Thompson, Ernest Hanney.

They also went on a hike on Saturday, May 12. They started from East End low level bridge and had a pleasant wheel about various parts of the city. In the meantime several pictures were taken for supper.

Excelsior Club (St. Paul's)
There will be two meetings of the Excelsior Club this coming week, one on Sunday, May 20, at 4:15 p.m., and another on Tuesday, May 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Two new members have recently been added to our most noble fellowship, namely, Terence Ridd and Paul Randall. Talking of new membership brings up the subject of membership. We have one club well under way but it is felt that another organization is necessary to make matters more interesting.

Our program is as follows: 1. business; 2. Bible discussion; 3. games of physical exercises. We are not following the C. S. E. T. course of instruction at present but intend to do so during the winter months.

In closing we wish all the boys' organizations in Edmonton the best of good fortune as long as they may continue.

Sends to Patient Taking GIN PILLS

Mrs. W. O. Grant, of Woonsocket, R.I., is suffering from a complaint of the bladder, for which she is under a physician's care. It was while toiling through Nova Scotia that she tried Gin Pills, and was so impressed with the relief and comfort afforded, she bought six boxes.

It is interesting to note what Mrs. Grant says, in writing me to mail her more Gin Pills: "I am having good results from them. The doctor says I have the bladder and the pills seem to keep me comfortable. I think I am as good as cured."

In such a case medicine can, at best, only ease the suffering, and everyone must realize the significance of the physician's attitude. Gin Pills are the recognized medicine in all affections of the bladder and kidneys, such as pain in the back, swollen joints, derangements of the urinary system, and gravel. Take Gin Pills now, before your trouble becomes acute.

The above comparative records were taken from the public accounts and are substantially correct. There is no intention of making graft charges against the Government. Our only object as a tax payer is to inform the taxpayers as to the deplorable condition of public affairs under the Sifton Government.

The writer is neither a Liberal nor a Conservative, but belongs to the Canadian Win-the-War Party, nor is any of the expense of this publicity paid by any candidate or politician.

Fancy a Government spending in the second year of the war over $46,000 on travelling expenses alone !!

While our brave Canadians are dying in the trenches fighting for liberty and for the very life of the Empire, our public servants are rolling in luxury at the expense of the taxpayers of the Province, and increasing the Governmental expenses instead of economizing as you and I are compelled to do in our homes and in our business.

Fancy this Government increasing in a war year the cost of civil government over $292,000 ! or the land titles office over $65,000 in the same year with a staff of 132 employees on the pay roll, or the Attorney General's Department increasing the salaries over $13,000 !

Look at the enormous public debt ! Look at the increase under Sifton ! Look at the high salaries paid our travelling officials. There never has been in the whole history of Canadian provinces such lavish, criminally extravagant waste of public funds as in Alberta under Siftonism and yet this is the government that the Premier calls "Good Government" and is backed up by some women orators begging the votes to return this government on its records as a "Good Government." They are asking the wives and sisters and sweethearts of the soldiers at the front to support this government while the soldiers themselves have been practically disfranchised by the same government and insulted by a specious hiving of their votes.

They misapply the Wild Land Tax, depriving the farmers of its use for hospitals, roads or schools.

They appropriate the Theatre Tax, which they call a "War Tax." Operator and Censor of Moving Pictures, Auctioneers', Peddlers', Pool Room, Hotel and every conceivable license and tax that should belong to the cities, in order to raise revenue to squander in luxurious living.

To call an election at this critical time, during the absence of 40,000 soldier voters, at a heavy expense, is a crime and is another evidence of their greed for power and their cowardice in evading a fair choice of the voters.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKETS.

Winnipeg, May 18.—The influence of the reports from the south was noticeable early in the session. The maximum prices over there are not working out very satisfactorily and there is an earnest call for a minimum as well. The claim is that new buying is eliminated and the result may be to depress values unduly.

Winnipeg October opened 1/2c down at 204 1/4. May oats 1/2c lower at 77 1/2. July 1/2c higher at 78 1/2. The weather over the west was generally fair and clear. Cloudy at Edmonton, Redford, Saskatoon and Swift Current. Down to frost at some points and four degrees at Calgary.

Cars inspected at Winnipeg were 1,130. Chicago wheat opened 2c to 4c lower for July at 217 to 215 and 2c to 3c lower for September at 197 to 195.

Minneapolis wheat opened unchanged for July at 204.

After a very quiet session markets closed generally higher. Winnipeg October was 1/2c higher, 204 1/4; oats 1/2c higher, 78 1/2; July 1/2c higher, 79 1/2; for October 1/2c higher, 80 1/2.

May barley closed 1/2c lower. Flax closed unchanged for May and 1/2c lower for July. Minneapolis closed with May 3c higher, 204 1/4; and September 6c higher, 204 1/4.

Chicago closed with July 5c higher and September 6c higher.

There was no change in Winnipeg cash quotation or the quotations from basis contracts. Winnipeg No. 1 Northern is 2 1/2c to 2c under Minneapolis. There is really no cash situation to talk about. The Government agent continues to take cash wheat of all grades and release futures again and not only is May largely cleaned up but a good start made in July. There was a little better demand for lower grades wheat, with the exception of "rough" grades, which are practically all going to the crushers.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 18.—Cautiousness about selling after such sharp declines as recently were witnessed was manifest today in the wheat pit. It was pointed out by bullish traders that premiums for wheat for immediate delivery had shown a tendency to harden and stocks at Minneapolis had decreased 80,000 bushels for the week, as against 90,000 bushels falling off a year ago. Forced restriction of buying of future deliveries, however, continued to exercise a bearish influence in the option pit, opening price of futures ranged from 2c to 4c lower, with July at 215 to 217 and September at 195 to 197. There was a slight further subsequent setback, but then a moderate rally and of urgent domestic and foreign demand for corn products caused gains in corn. After opening 1/2c to 3c lower, the market rallied to well above yesterday's finish.

Data showed independent strength on account of seaboard advices of a liberal export inquiry.

Steadiness of the hog market upheld provisions. Price changes were slight, but mainly upward.

Word of liberal export buying of wheat and barley on the Pacific coast gave a decided upswing later to prices of future deliveries. It was said the grain was going forward to Europe from the Pacific coast on rush orders. The market closed strong, 6c to 8c higher, with July at 228 and September at 205.
